

"ROLLING OVER." Osborne, of Illinois, in this trial tied with Johnny Murphy, of Notre Dame, for first place in the high jump at Stagg Field, Chicago

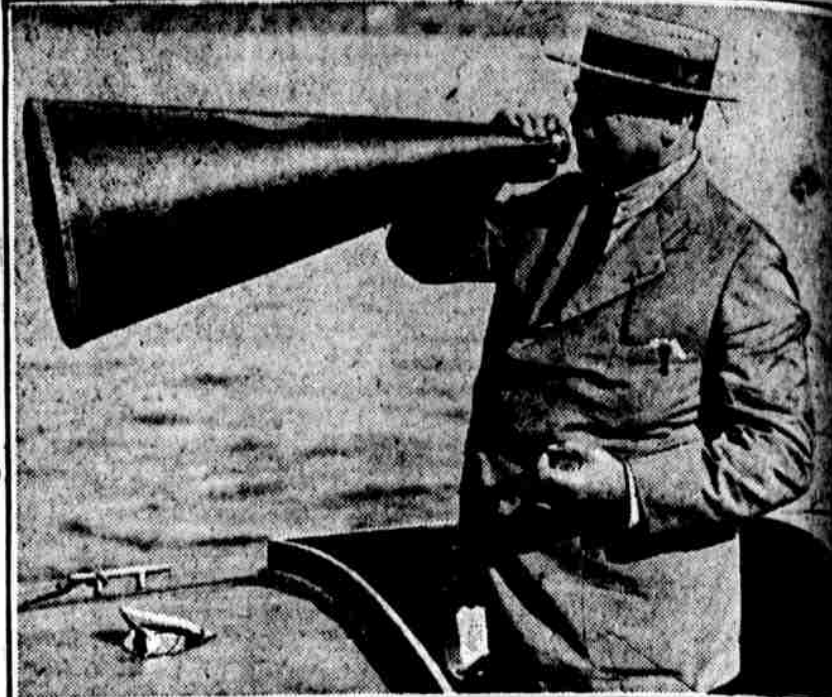

SENATOR PEPPER DOING SOME AUTOGRAPHING FOR CATHERINE LLOYD. The sixtieth annual commencement of the Pennsylvania Military College was held yesterday. Honorary degrees were conferred on Senator Pepper, Senor Chamorro and Secretary Weeks. Mr. Wanamaker is president of the board of trustees of the college

EMILIANO CHAMORRO, NICARAGUAN MINISTER TO U. S.

JOHN WANAMAKER AND SECRETARY OF WAR WEEKS

JOE WRIGHT ON THE HUDSON RIVER. Penn's rowing coach "on the job" as the crews train for the regatta at Poughkeepsie

MISS ANN FORREST, film star, on her way to England, where she will play a leading role in film play

CHARGED WITH KILLING WIFE. Rudolph Krischer, 1031 Mount Vernon street, shot and killed his wife on June 6. Pursued by the police, he jumped from the roof of his home and broke his leg

ALLA MOSKOVA, Russian dancer, won her divorce suit in California and has sailed for Italy

CARBONDALE VISITED BY SECOND FLOOD. The Powderly mine tracks were washed from their bed and the mine pit flooded, when the Lackawanna River overflowed its banks

HE'S BEEN PLAYING ON NEARBY GOLF LINKS. F. C. Newton, of the Brookline Club, Boston

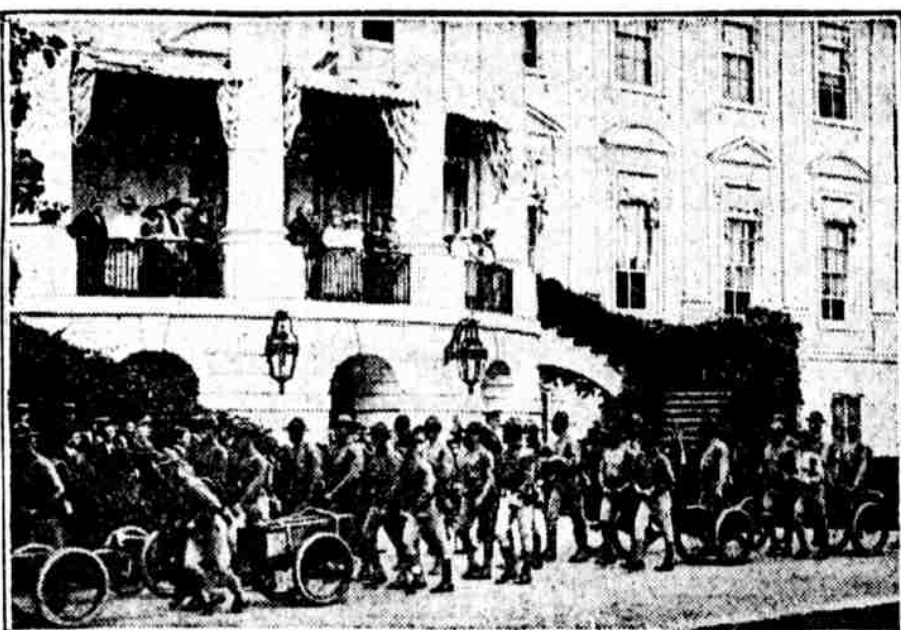

TWINS GRADUATED. These sisters are members of the 1922 class of the Northwestern University. They are Mary and Margaret Waddell

MRS. HORACE TOWNER assisting in entertaining Filipino women at Washington

CHARLES J. COHEN talks of work of Fairmount Park Art Association in Editorial Page interview

ON TO GETTYSBURG. Five thousand marines passed in review before President Harding on the White House grounds. They were on the first lap of their trip from Quantico, Va., to the Pennsylvania battlefield

PLENTY OF SUN AND LOTS OF SMILES. Week-enders have merry time with football on the sands of an English bathing resort

S. H. E. FREUND, new general counsel of U. S. Emergency Fleet Corporation

A. C. FLATHER, of Washington, new vice president of Financial Advertising Association

DR. CARLOS M. CESPEDES, Minister to the United States from Cuba

"CHAMPION BALLYSHANNON," Irish wolfhound, in care of his owner, Mrs. Glenn Stewart. The dog has been exhibited in several foreign countries, winning many prizes

CATHERINE HAGER, of Jenkintown, winner of a first prize at the Abington Hospital fete

MISS THOMAS, a typist of Liverpool, England, won $285,000 in English sweepstake

GILDA GRAY, of Ziegfeld Follies, her dancing is attracting much attention

FIGHTING FOR THE BALL. Henry Brinton Cox, Jr., of Bryn Mawr, and W. Standley Stokes, of the Philadelphia Country Club, on the Philadelphia Country Club polo field

FILM STAR. Camilla Holloy, of Hungary, has won fame in that country

NIFTY SYNCOPATORS. Barton Curtis, drummer, and Allen Mohr, leader, of the Weir Mitchell Junior High School orchestra

THEY LIVE IN THE CITY'S EQUINE HEAVEN. Five sturdy horses that find a comfortable home in the old William Penn Stables, at Thirty-eighth and Market streets, now leased by the Division of Street Cleaning

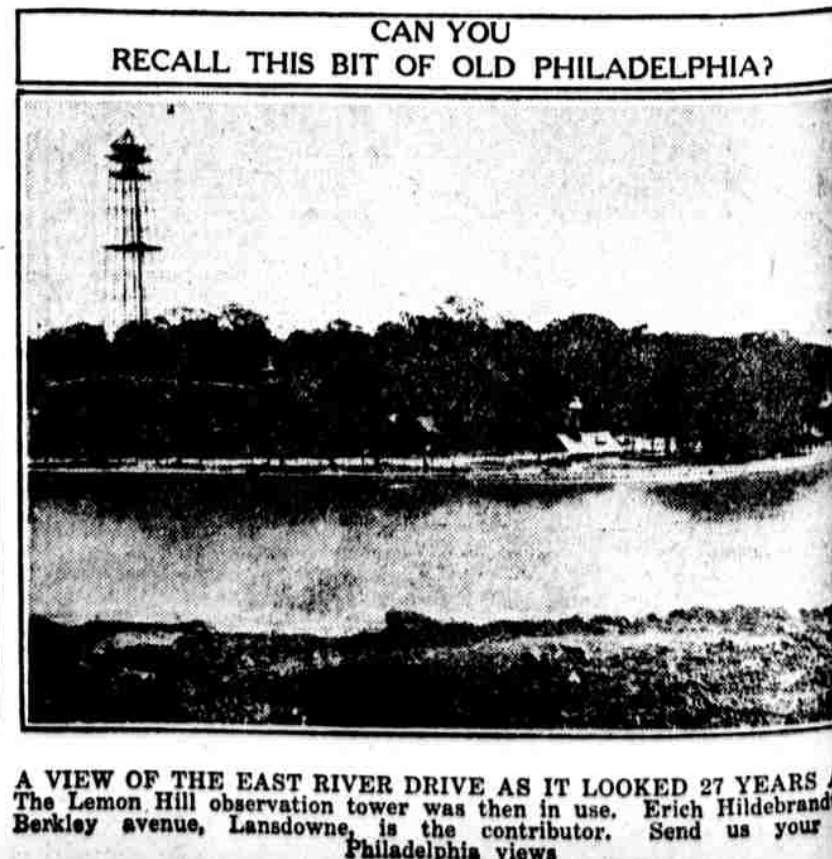

WELLESLEY'S 1922 VARSITY CREW. The fair athletes are the Misses Little, Davis, Magne, Shanks, Richards, Loud, Hastie, Bates and Breingan. Miss Bates is the captain

THE DUKE OF YORK INSPECTED BRITISH LEGION at memorial services held during the legion's first annual conference in London. The Prince was accompanied by Earl Haig (left)

WAR ACTIVITIES IN CHINA. This trainload of defeated Fengtien troops was photographed as it passed through Tientsin during a general retreat

A VIEW OF THE EAST RIVER DRIVE AS IT LOOKED 27 YEARS AGO. The Lemon Hill observation tower was then in use. Erich Hildebrandt, Berkeley avenue, Lansdowne, is the contributor. Send us your Philadelphia views